Consultancy Services to deliver Training on Islamic Microfinance Guidelines

The Gambia Government has applied for financing from the Islamic Development Bank toward the cost of the preparation of training on Islamic Microfinance guidelines, and intends to apply part of the proceeds for consultant services.

The Gambia Government now invites eligible consultants to indicate their interest in providing the services. Interested consultants must provide specific information, which demonstrates that they are fully qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). Experience in the following area or tasks shall be the minimum requirement for the assignment:

- Delivery of Training on Islamic Microfinance
- Preparation of Master Plan for Islamic Microfinance training
- Preparation of detailed design for Islamic Microfinance training

Consultants may express interests in the forms of association, validated by an agreement among members of the association, which clearly specifies the type of association, i.e. a joint-venture, intermediate forms of association, or sub consultancy.

A consultant will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the Guidelines for the Use of Consultants under Islamic Development Bank Financing (current edition).

Interested consultants may obtain further information at the address below during office hours. Expressions of interest must be delivered to the address below by 25 August 2019 through the e-mail.
