This will result in the disqualification of all bids in which the Bidder is involved. However, this does not limit the inclusion of a firm as a sub-contractor in more than one bid. | Fraud and Corruption (1.13.1) | It is IDB’s policy to require Beneficiaries as well as bidders/suppliers/contractors under IDB-financed contracts, to observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuance of this policy, IDB: i. defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
- "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution; and;
- "fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Beneficiary, and includes collusive practices among bidders (prior to or after submission of proposals) designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels and to deprive the Beneficiary of the benefits of free and open competition;
ii. will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question;
iii. on the evidence of corrupt or fraudulent practices by the Beneficiary or bidders – suppliers or contractors - in the procurement or the execution of the contract, will ask the Beneficiary country to take appropriate action to rescind the situation as specified in the IDB’s Standard Bidding Documents relevant to the specific procurement process.
